DAY 3

MOLAT

Molat is an inviting emerald atop a sea of sapphire. Made gloriously green thanks to thick pine forest and acres of shrubland, the main industries on the island are agriculture, fishing and tourism. Beloved of holidaying royals and those seeking sun-drenched seclusion, Molat embodies untouched escapism.

There is a choice of bays ideally positioned along the shoreline, offering a combination of sand, rock and pebble beaches. Perfect for bathing, swimming and watersports, the seas around this attractive islet make for an unforgettable charter experience.

RECOMMENDED ACTIVITIES

- Secluded inlets
- Sandy beaches
- Waters sports
- Hiking and nature trails

DAY 4

PAG

The island of Pag is the 5th largest in Croatia and home to the longest coastline. Pag is known for its moon like landscape, strong winds and award winning sheep cheese, Paški sir in which its unique flavour comes from the wind-blown Adriatic sea salt. She is also famous for hosting some of the worlds largest dance music festivals.

Drop anchor in a secluded cove to enjoy a morning of snorkelling and kayaking, or head to shore and explore it's rugged coastline and its blanket of forest by foot or bicycle.

RECOMMENDED ACTIVITIES

DAY 5

MALI LOSINJ

Mali is the stunning harbour town of Losinj, the “Island of Vitality”, with its vibrant colours and crystal blue waters. Known for its large natural harbour which has a broad promenade. Mali Losinj, the largest town on Losinj Island, is a stunner.

Set at the apex of a long natural harbour and ringed by graceful, gently weathered Mediterranean town houses and green hills, the town straddles both coasts on the narrowest section of the island. A string of imposing 19th-century sea-captains’ houses lines the seafront, and even with the summer tourist commotion, this historic quarter retains its charm and atmosphere.
